This clinic handles a broad spectrum of health care law cases, such as public benefits, Medicare and Medicaid, nursing home discharges, and others. Students also participate in a geriatric interdisciplinary assessment team project at the Baltimore Veteran's Administration Medical Center. The clinic accepts clients who cannot afford a private attorney, and it does not represent elder clients exclusively.

Western Maryland 2-1-1

The Federal Communications Commission has designated 2-1-1 as an easy-to-remember phone number to call for information and referral to health and human services. 2-1-1 provides information about these kinds of resources:

- * Basic human needs
- * Physical and mental health
- * Employment support
- * Support for older Americans and people with Disabilities
- * Support for children, youth and families
- * Mobile crisis services

 Suicide prevention and intervention services

2-1-1 operates 24 hours a day/7 days a week/52 weeks a year. 2-1-1 services are available in over 150 languages. Western Maryland 2-1-1, which covers Washington and Frederick Counties, is operated by the Mental Health Association of Frederick County, the home of the Frederick County Hotline.
